Back-to-School Donations: The past 2 years we hosted a "Back-to-School Bash" at the end of August in partnership with OAC (Oshtemo Area Churches). For the classrooms/staff ~

- Tissues
- Hand Sanitizer
- Lysol/Clorox sanitizing wipes
- Dry Erase Markers
- Construction Paper

Missionary Moment...

We're thankful for the results we are seeing, as new visitors to worship hear the Gospel, new congregations organize, and new believers are added to the body of Christ. Here's one story:

She was the first person to be baptized in the Chichibu Reformed Church in 8 years! This small, rural congregation is in a town known above all for Buddhist pilgrimages, and it is doubly difficult to bring people to church life and faith in a society where there is already great resistance to the Gospel. The far-flung town has a total population of about 60,000, but there are only three tiny churches (one of which is Roman Catholic) with a total worship attendance of only about 40 souls. Our group, with 20 in worship, is the largest! World Missions started this work in 1957 when the dominant strategy was to reach out to the countryside towns and villages. Conventional wisdom about mission strategy has changed to focus on urbanized and growing areas, and yet a soul is a soul and a lost sheep a lost sheep! But the church is without its own pastor. Modest renewed missionary involvement in Chichibu Church has had some results! The church added 4 new members in the last two years, including the woman who just professed faith in Christ, some new programs have been started to give greater visibility in the community, lay people are getting training to lead Bible studies, and there are a number of other seekers now worshipping regularly, giving hope for further growth. Church membership is heavily on the elderly side, but that generation is determined to carry on and has made a bold plan to rebuild their non-earthquake-resistant facility, which is in an excellent and visible location, to attract still more people to hear the message of the living God and his Son.

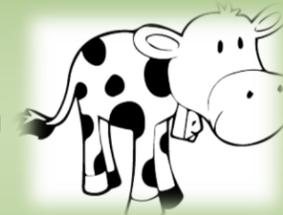

We are very pleased and thankful for your commitment to be partners with us in this effort to extend God's kingdom. Thank you for your prayers! And thank you for your financial support as well. We appreciate it very much!

Meanwhile, we hope all is well with you on your side of the ocean, which we plan to visit briefly this summer to meet two new grandchildren, both little girls, one in Chicago and one in New York City. Never a dull moment!
