What’s up in Worship

SERMON SERIES
ON THE
10 COMMANDMENTS

SET FREE TO LIVE FREE: It’s clear from Scripture that the law cannot save us from our sin. We are saved by grace and by grace alone. What, then, should we do with the law and God’s rules for holy living? How do we apply the law to a gospel-centered life? Join us in a series on the 10 Commandments (Exodus 20) as we discover again God’s design for human flourishing, both for our own good and for His glory. Series begins September 4, 2016.

Ministry

Coffeebreak will be starting their new fall season on Tuesday, September 20. We meet every Tuesday morning from 9:30 am—11 am. We will be studying 1 Samuel. All ladies are welcome. If you have any questions regarding Coffeebreak, please see Phyllis Triezenberg or Barb Nieboer.

G.R.O.W. Bible study: The book of Ruth recounts one of the most moving stories in scripture as Ruth, a displaced widow, is in search of a new home and loving husband. Join us this fall as Kathleen Nielson takes us on a journey to discover the God who hears the cries of his people and remains faithful to his promises in her study Knowing the Bible: Ruth.

We will also read selections from Carolyn Custis James book The Gospel of Ruth: Loving God Enough to Break the Rules that will bring new, life-changing insights into this well-known story. Her insights uncover the same passionate, counter-cultural, rule-breaking gospel that Jesus modeled and taught.

G.R.O.W. will meet Thursdays from 9:30 am to 11 am starting September 8 and running through December 1. Please contact Heather Tuin (372-0727) with any questions or to express your interest in joining this study on Ruth.

"If you think the Lord moves in mysterious ways, you should see long division."

"Pastor says all the answers are in here. I guess he never had to take one of Miss Hathorne's geography exams."
