Volume #17, Issue 48

December 16, 2018

What’s up in Worship

Upcoming Sermon Series:
Sprinkled throughout the New Testament are several “one another” commands—love one another, serve one another, admonish one another, forgive one another, etc. With every command God describes what Jesus’ disciples ought to look like as a biblically functioning community. Join us beginning Sunday, January 13 as we explore God’s design for a Christ-centered community.

Celebrations

Birthdays

Amanda Miller ~ December 29

To our Heritage Church family:

Merry Christmas! On behalf of our family, we wish you a blessed Christmas and the joy of a faith-filled New Year. Thank you for the joy and privilege of belonging to a faithful community of Christ followers. We count ourselves blessed to be a part of this great church family! Pastor Simon, Heather, Connor & Ian

Office Hours:

Pastor Simon is working away from the office December 26-29 so as to be able to travel to Ontario and spend time with extended family. If necessary, the best way to reach him is by way of e-mail: pastorsimon@heritagecrc.org. If a need should arise that needs immediate attention, please contact a shepherding elder.

Thank you

We want to thank you all for your prayer support, words of sympathy and expressions of love during the loss of our husband, dad and grandfather. A special thank you to Pastor Simon. We are richly blessed to be part of this amazing family of God.
