What’s up in Worship

Join us in our continuing series on “David: A King After God’s Own Heart”. The story of David—a shepherd boy who becomes King—is one of the most extraordinary accounts in the Bible. Like every story in the Bible it reminds us we are not what we ought to be and yet God is always as He will be. Join us as we explore the life of David and learn what it means to live a life after God’s heart and how this ultimately leads us to our need for Jesus.

Ministry Moment: This morning we are pleased to welcome Rev. Laura Osborne and Jordan Palladino to Heritage CRC! Laura and Jordan are co-leaders of International Student Fellowship (ISF) on the campus of WMU and they will share an update on their work in the morning service. Heritage CRC has supported the work of ISF for many years through Faith Promise, a ministry fund we use to support individuals and agencies that are actively involved in sharing the Gospel with others. Over the past 20 years we have also supported this outreach by providing food twice a year for the International Student Luncheon. Following the service they will be available in the Fellowship Hall to talk more about their ministry.

Thank you

Dear Heritage CRC: Thank you so much for your generous donation towards my mission trip to the Dominican Republic. It was amazing to see God working in the lives of the people we were able to minister too. He also worked on my own heart while I was there. He softened it even more. Mission trips have a way of humbling me, making me realize all I have been blessed with. The most memorable moment from the mission trip was going to the sugar cane villages where the people were living in extreme poverty. We were able to play with the kids in the village. Although we couldn’t speak any creole, we were able to connect with them through baseball/softball. After hanging out for awhile we share our testimonies through a translator. It was a really special thing to be a part of and I will never forget it. I am forever grateful to be a part of a church family that supports me so much; whether it be financially or through prayer.

McKena Razenberg

A big thank you to our church family for all the cards, flowers, prayers, and expressions of love and support. This is a difficult journey we are on and so appreciate your support. We thank God for all of you!

Ministry
Pass the Peace, But not the Germs! During this cold and flu season, and until further notice, we ask that everyone refrain from shaking hands during the time of mutual greeting or the passing of the peace. Consider instead offering one of the following: a holy hand wave, a fellowship fist bump, or encouraging elbow nudge along with a greeting of "The peace of Christ to you."

The next book club meeting is on Wednesday, February 28 at 2 pm. We will discuss the book, "An Invisible Thread: the true story of an 11-year-old panhandler, a busy sales executive, and an unlikely meeting with destiny" written by Laura Schoff with Alex Tresniowski.

In celebration of the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ, you are invited to place an Easter lily in the sanctuary in memory of those who have left their earthly home to be with Christ in Heaven.

Sign up at the table in the Narthex and place $7.00 in the marked envelopes (also found on the table) in the offering.

Sunday, March 11 is the deadline to sign up!

Global Hymn Sing 2018: On Sunday, February 25 we join over 650,000 people from 3,500 churches in 63 countries as we sing "Jesus Shall Reign" as an act of unity in God's Mission. 29% of the world's population live in places where they have little or no access to a Bible, a church or a believer. That's over 2 billion individuals, or 6,900 people groups that are considered unreached and in need of someone sent from outside their community to share Jesus with them. Today we join thousands across the globe from many nations to lift voices together and sing this setting of Psalm 66, proclaiming in faith that one day:

"Jesus shall reign where're the sun,
Does its successive journeys run,
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more."
